

OPEN CALL DANCERS

LABORMANIFEST #8 . february 2 to 10, 2019

The LABORMANIFEST is a discursive and performative platform that takes place twice a year in Freiburg, Germany at Südufer. It is initiated and organized by tanznetz|freiburg and financed by TANZPAKT Stadt-Land-Bund. It is a space for reflection, vision, development, research and networking by, for and with dance makers.

LABORMANIFEST #8 is about sharpening our voice as artists within the broader community through hands-on practice. We will take the first two days to reflect on our role as artists individually and in relation to each other through dialogue, movement and additional formats. We will work to refine our intentions and express them with clarity and transparency. We also will explore how our scene can thrive by recognizing the diversity of strengths and weaknesses as the base for collaborations. From days three to seven we will put this into practice through collaboration with musicians.

REGISTRATION/PARTICIPATIONS

Participation in the Artistic Exchange, Reflection and Vision weekend is required in order to participate in the following week's of collaboration with musicians. If you cannot take part in the following seven days, it is also possible to only take part in the weekend of artistic exchange.

Application is not necessary, but please confirm your attendance by emailing to labormanifest@tanznetz-freiburg.de

Your confirmation and commitment is necessary for planning Labormanifest #8!
